

Osteopathic Family Physician

JOURNAL

2022 CALL FOR PAPERS

Osteopathic Family Physician is the ACOFP's official peer-reviewed journal. The bi-monthly publication features clinical images and articles about preventive medicine, managed care, osteopathic principles and practices, pain management, public health, medical education and practice management.

RESERVE A TOPIC

Reserve a review article topic today by emailing OFPP Managing Editor Grace Johnson Adams at gracea@acofp.org. Please provide your name and the review title you would like to reserve. Once you reserve a review article topic, you will receive an email confirmation from ACOFP. This will initiate a three-month deadline for submission. If the paper is not received within three months, the system will release the review article topic for other authors to reserve. Articles submitted for publication must be original in nature and may not be published in any other periodical. Materials for publication should be of clinical or didactic interest to osteopathic family physicians. Any reference to statistics and/or studies must be footnoted. Material by another author must be in quotations and receive appropriate attribution. ACOFP reserves the right to edit all submissions. Visit ofppjournal.com to view author guidelines, policies and manuscript checklist.
